“ I am so very sorry for your loss! You have my heart felt sympathy. Even though I didn't know you mom, I know she had to have been an amazing woman to have raised such wonderful children. My son Austin went to school with Ross. He was such a good kid. Thoughts be with you.

“ Years ago (and, we're talking decades) as a little girl, I would get to go to work with my Dad, Everett Bates, at Patterson's Market in Center. I stood on a stool by the cash register up front, & would bag groceries as Dad gave me instructions so as to not bust eggs or smash bread. When things got slow up front, Jeanie would come get me to wrap meat in the back. She taught me to "feel" a pound of hamburger. I got pretty good at it. She always would weigh it & tell me how close I was to an actual pound. After a lot of practice, she didn't bother weighing it anymore. She was a good teacher. To this day, every time I unwrap a package of hamburger from the butcher shop, I think of Jeanie. It's funny the things that touch your heart & make a memory. That's one I never have forgotten.

Sharing in your sadness & loss,
