“ Dear Tammy and Family,
I'm VERY SORRY to hear of my Lifelong Friend Eric passing away. Eric spent ALOT of time at my home at 1122 Carlisle Ave. growing up.
Eric and I was joined at the hip ! He saved my life once when I fell thru the ice on Wills Creek. We bowled in the Junior Bowling league at Capitol Lanes , rode dirtbikes ,and was best friends for YEARS. We lost touch with each other when I moved to New Hampshire back in 1988.
I will pray for comfort for your family, and I myself will " NEVER" forget him.
Rest in Peace my good friend, see you on the Other Side.
Brotherly Love Always,
Kenneth George

“ I'm sorry to hear about my childhood friend from Orme avenue. I use to play with Jimmy, Randy and Eric and we spent countless hours building forts and playing outside. I was saddened to learn of the passing of Jimmy and Eric. Rest in Peace guys! You will forever be in my heart.

“ Tought and prayers for your family during this difficult time. I knew Eric from years ago...used to hang around Capital Bowling Alley and we bowled together on Wed night bowling league at King Pin. He always had a smile on his face, also would stirke up a conversation everytime he saw a familiar face. Lots of good memories :) So sorry about your loss!
