“ Jack will be missed on those Salt Fork Trails. Will always remember riding the horses out on white A trail, to check out the severe storm damage. The riding was rough and portions of the trail was block, but Jack got us thru. Ann & Harold Prunty

“ I loved my Uncle Ermal. I didn't get a chance to visit him and Geneva in Cambridge alot, but I still remember when I did when I was little. He had horses which I LOVED and I had such fun there. He was always happy and smiling and I will always remember his laugh and great spirit. Mom will be in heaven waiting to see her brother. She loved her brother, Ermal and he sure did love my mom just as much right back. He will be greatly missed.
