“ I worked with Forrest when she was a volunteer at the hospital. Our desks faced each other and it was a tiny office so we talked a lot and had many laughs. She was the SWEETEST lady, kind & gentle with a great sense of humor. She talked often of her precious family. She took care of her husband and home with joy and it was her top priority to make everyone happy. She was a joy to know and I will always remember her sweet spirit. My prayers go out to you all.
