“ Roger,
your mother was a special lady! I remember her well, you maybe surprised by this.... She explained to me many things about a kitchen! (I am sure she knew I was in the Children's Home) offered me help without saying anything to embarrass me. and.... She ALWAYS gave me big helpings in the lunch line. Peace and condolences to you and your family.
Kind regards, Lila McCollum Webster
PS In the picture (provided) I see her beautiful smile & her twinkling eyes are the same fro 40+ years ago.

*So sorry to hear the news of your Mother.
I always called her Mrs. Helmick and she would always correct me and say her name is Jean.
Like Rusty said we had great times growing up in the neighbor hood and your mom and dad treated us like family.*
