In November 1996 Gary Lee Lucas met his Master and on February 21, 2010 he went home to live with Him. Thank you Paul Webster and Anna Jayne Lucas for giving us Gary on June 23, 1942. On September 1, 1962 Gary and Sue were united in love and blessed the world with Rhonda who waits with him in heaven for Paula, Dawn Steve, Gale and Lisa. “ Dear Sue and Family, I have fond memories of Gary when he mowed for us both before and after mother died. I always tried to get out to talk with him while he was there, because he was great to talk with, quiet but pithy, always with something to offer, and we usually had a chuckle or two. My prayers are with you and may the Lord ease your sorrow. We know that Gary is at peace with God. Love you.##imported-begin##Mimi Eikenberry Case##imported-end##

“ Aunt Sue,

I will always remember Uncle Gary as a quiet and introspective type of guy. I admired him and identified with his love of life. It was obvious that he cherished his family and everything about the world around him. He always seemed to be busy with something outside, enjoying the natural beauty of everyday.

You are all in my thoughts.##imported-begin##Goldie Barnett##imported-end##

“ Sue and family,

There are few words to express the sadness of Uncle Gary's passing.

He leaves this earth and those who loved him to be in a place prepared by our savior.

His gentle nature, and whole hearted laugh has left an enduring memory for all that knew him.

With loving fondness he will be missed.##imported-begin##Lynn Trewiler##imported-end##
