

George Edward Valentine Jr.

June 14, 1957 - September 7, 2015

George E. Valentine Jr. age 58 of Cambridge, passed away on Monday, September 7, 2015 at Southeastern Ohio Regional Medical Center. He was born on June 14, 1957 in Cleveland, the son of the late George E. Valentine Sr. and Ethel A. (Szabo) Valentine.

Mr. Valentine worked at Detroit Diesel for over 31 years. He enjoyed spending time with his son Eric. He was a member of the Flamingo Road Rebels. He enjoyed classic and antique cars and attending swap meets and car shows. George was a jack of all trades and was the Detroit Diesel "MacGyver". George was a loving husband, a dedicated father, a caring son to his mother and an incredible friend to many.

Survived by his wife and best friend, Mary (McManaway) Valentine and amazing son Eric Edward Valentine of the home; and his God -daughter Samantha Dornbirer.

George is preceded in death by his parents and Uncle Alex Szabo.

Visitation will be at Bundy-Law Funeral Home on Thursday, September 10, 2015 from 2:30 pm to 6 pm. The service will be held on Friday, at 3:30 pm with Woody Biggs officiating. Burial will follow in Senecaville Cemetery. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to the family to help pay for Eric's education and sent to 120 N. 11th Street, Cambridge, Ohio 43725. George's online tribute wall may be viewed and signed at www.bundy-lawfuneralhome.com.

“ *To the family of George,
George was my Grandparents newspaper boy and mowed there grass years ago in Lore City. I have only good things to say about him. We shared a lot of laughs together at Detroit Diesel , George taught me a lot and I feel blessed to have known him.
I will miss you greatly "My Friend".
You and your family our in my prayers. Jason Stillion*

“ I'm so very sorry for your loss, I graduated with George and meet up again years later when I started at Detroit Diesel. He still was the nicest and caring person I knew from high school, and always smiling no mater what kind of a day he was having. My thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family through this rough time. George will be missed from many.

“ Mary & Eric, and family, My thoughts & prayers are with you all and so sorry to hear about your loss. I didn't know George on a personal basis but wanted to tell you how much my family appreciated George's friendship to my brother Paul ("JR) Voytko during their growing up years, working together at Detroit Diesel, and and all the help he gave Anita and us when Jr suddenly passed away in Jan. 2015. They were always there for each other. Now they are "Angels" together. May God Bless! Annie Fields & son Ryan Alan Fields

“ My love thoughts and prayers go out to the family in the rough time. I must say, I will never forget the smile he had while coming into speedway with his son for some frozen drinks. Thoeae two were always very pleasant to wait on. He was a genuine man and he did a great job raising his son. Big hugs to his wife and son.

“ There are a lot of memories that bring a smile to our faces...the couples' baby show for expectant Eric and gown men in "diapers" comes to mind. George was always a good sport and had a great sense of humor, for which he'll be greatly remembered. He was a kind soul and our hearts go out to you, Mary and Eric for the loss of your soulmate and a wonderful father. We share your loss and our lives have been blessed having known him for the time we have been friends.

Hugs,
