“ Dear Kim and Family, So sorry for the loss of your Mother. She was such a blessing to me when I was Director of the Senior Center. With her help, we were able to start Home Health and enlarge our Homemaker Services. She was one of a kind, and a small package of dynamite. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Warmly,
Sandy & Larry West

“ Kim and Family,

I wish to express my condolences and those of my parents, Ed and Mary Ann Mitchell, on your Mother's passing. My Mother greatly enjoyed working with Gladys in the medical department at RCA and always held her in the highest regard. To her, Gladys was the embodiment of nursing excellence and Mom spoke of her highly and often. Know that you have the deepest sympathies of the entire Mitchell family during this difficult time.

“ Kim and Family,

You have our deepest sympathy. Your mom was such a great neighbor & friend. She is so blessed to have you as her son and granddaughters who took great care of her.

She always talked about her grandchildren. If there is anything we can do just let us know.

Your in our thoughts & prayers.
