Tribute Wall

“ My fondest memory of Glenna is spending time with her while watching her Grandchildren Alex and Sindney. It was dusk and she was sitting like a child, legs crossed on her swing, looking up at the stars and explaining to me the sound of Whippoorwills while hugging up Alex and telling Sidney not to go to far out in the yard while she was catching lightning bugs. She enjoyed her house, the sounds of nature and the outdoors so much she wanted everyone to experience it as well. I have learned so much from you and will cherish the thought of you ALWAYS!
