Tribute Wall

“ We are so very sorry to hear the bad news. Aunt Goldie was a very wonderful Lady. I can remember all the fun we used to have at the Gray gatherings, especially the one at Glorias', where we had all of the adults playing games. Like passing the lifesaver from a toothpick down to the next person, without using your hands. Lord! How I miss those days!
I'm sorry we couldn't make it there. But, all of you are in our prayers and in our hearts. This is a very rough time for all of you, I know. Always remember the fond memories of our LOVED ONES !!!
For we will see them again.

The Rainbow Bridge

Just this side of Heaven is a place called Rainbow Bridge. When someone we love passes away, they go to Rainbow Bridge. There are meadows, hills, flowers, butterflies and everything is so beautiful for all our loved ones whom have gone before us. All who had been sick, young and old, are now healthy and strong once more. Just as we remember them in our dreams. One thing we should think about, is that even though we are sad and hurt here on earth from the passing of our loved ones. They too, are sad and hurt, because of the loved ones they left behind. When our time comes, we have a lot to look forward to. Our loved ones will be waiting for us with their arms wide open. Then we will start anew and never be parted again.

Love and Prayers to all

“ I will always remember Aunt Goldie with the beautiful silver gray hair and gentle smile on her face. I will always think of her when my honeysuckle is in bloom.
I can remember Gloria and I on the porch swing picking the honeysuckle blooms and sucking out the sweet nectar.##imported-begin##Barbara Price##imported-end##

“ Linda and I are with you in spirit, Gloria & Larry. Your faithfulness in caring for Goldie and other elder family members has been an inspiration to all of us. Now you may pause and rest, knowing that your mother is also resting in Heaven. Let your children, grandchildren and those around you comfort you in this time of sadness, yet relief.##imported-begin##Bob & Linda Baker##imported-end##
