

Harry Keith Jones

November 17, 1944 - February 11, 2013

Harry K. Jones, 68 of Cambridge, passed away on Monday, February 11, 2013 at Southeastern Ohio Regional Medical Center. He was born on November 17, 1944 in Cambridge, a son of the late Harry B. Jones and Anna Ruth (Blair) Jones.

Mr. Jones was a graduate of Cambridge High School. Upon graduation, he was employed by Kennedy's Bakery and then served his country in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War as a radio operator. While in the military, he earned a good conduct medal and was an expert rifleman. After the service he worked at N.C.R and Gearhart in Cambridge. Harry was well known in the area for his tomatoes on Jefferson Avenue. He was an avid fisherman who enjoyed bowling and golfing.

He leaves: two daughters, Stacy (John) Adamski of Massillon and Misty Jones of Cambridge; a sister Emma Wilson of Cambridge; a brother Donald E. (Kathy) Jones of Marietta, Georgia; two grandchildren, Hannah and Ryan Jones; several nieces and nephews; and his long time companion Marilyn Stevens.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother Gary Jones.

Visitation will be on Friday, February 15, 2013 at Bundy-Law Funeral Home from 12 pm to 1 pm with the service at 1 pm. Pastor Rufus Hofelt will officiate the service. Burial will follow in Northwood Cemetery where military graveside rites will be conducted by the Guernsey County Veterans Council. “ Harry and I grew up as brothers. We hunted, fished, trapped, and got in our share of trouble together. Of course, we drank our share of beer and played pool together. Had a few fights, but always made amends afterwards! He was my bestfriend. I have alot of fond memories of our childhood. I will miss him dearly. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family.

Rick Hossler

P.S. I will drink a cold one for you, my friend.

Rest in Peace
