“ I am so sorry for your loss. I was so shocked to hear about Helen's death. It was so surprising to hear about it, especially because she always came across to me as a strong person. Helen will be missed; I will never be able to repay her for all she has taught me in 4-H, poultry judging, and good sportsmanship. She taught me how to give a demonstration and how to present myself in the best way possible. She taught me how to be a leader, which wasn't very hard when she herself gave such a great example that I could always copy. Up to this very day I use the skills she has taught me and I thank God that she was in my life and was a big part of my life. I could ask her about anything, she seemed to know everything. And when she didn't know, she would find out or clearly say that she didn't know. And Helen was fun! She liked to watch us play games and laughed with us. She understood that there is a time to work, but there is also a time to play. She incorporated fun into our work, and made it so interesting that it didn't feel like work. I will never be able to repay her for what she has given me. I know she led a full life and that she was loved and will be missed by all, including myself. I will pray for her and for her family. May her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen.

Sincerely,

Alexis Thornton##imported-begin##Alexis Thornton##imported-end##

“ Energetic; full of curiosity; very generous; loving of her family; shared everything from her time to her plants. Helen was one of those 'beautiful people' I was privileged to know. Her family is fortunate to have such good memories of her enthusiasm and her laughter. Hold onto one another and let her strength surround you.##imported-begin##Judy Ward##imported-end##

“ Helen was such a great person that she took us under her "wing" and helped teach us so much when we first started 4-H. We learned so much about chickens and goats from her, Rick and the Girls that they will forever hold a spot in our lives. Rick, Niki, and Carrie, you are in our thoughts and prayers. “Helen was such an awesome person, I worked with her at Kroger for a very long time. When I had cancer, she was so supportive. When my hair fell out, she cut hers really short. She told me that she did it because she didn't want me to feel alone. That is the kind of person she was; so caring and thoughtful. Rick, Carrie and Nikki, I know how much she loved her family. My prayers are with you. Take care of each other, which I know that you will.##imported-begin##Teresa Clark##imported-end##
