“ I really enjoyed visiting with Helen when she was in my Walmart store on 21st street in Newark.
1 day she came up to me and said, I know who you are and exactly where you live!! Low and behold she did know I lived right close to both her sons!!
65 miles from the store. Lol
Such a sharp lady and so many great conversations after that.
Condolences to the family on your loss.

“ Such a bitter-sweet time this is as we all mourn Helen's physical presence. Just look at that radiant smile in her picture above. That's the smile that always greeted every visitor day in and day out. That smile along with her "How you doing, ____?" question. She made us all feel very welcomed and very special. Even my little dog Chico loved, loved, loved to visit Helen as if they were the best of buds. To this day he still wants to run up her driveway when we are out for a walk. We will deeply miss her. Our neighborhood just won't be the same but the memory of her sweetness will always warm our hearts when we think of her and whenever we pass her house. This is the bitter part!

The sweet part is knowing how happy and free she is now without a care in the world. I know she is enjoying being reunited with her husband and her best friend, Rose. Oh, I can only imagine the conversations they are having and I believe I can hear their laughter! Until we meet again, my friend!!

My love, thoughts and prayers to her children, grandchildren, and all her loved ones.

“ My heart aches for all of you during this difficult time, but your mother/grandmother is with the Lord. I am grateful for the privilege of taking Communion to Helen for many years, and cherish the hours we spent together chatting about everything and anything. I miss her--my friend and neighbor. Love you all.

“ Helen was such a warm and generous spirit. One could never pop in for a visit with Helen without being offered a variety of her tasty homemade dishes. May the entire Adair family find comfort in knowing her life was rich and well-lived in great part because she was surrounded by them. Take good care of one another at this difficult time. I'm sure Helen would have wanted that. Your love for her is yours to keep and treasure forever.

“ To the Wonderful neighborhood family and friends a cross the alley from me on 15th Street. So many great memories, camping out, the fort out back, the boat to the lake, the bread company, all the bike rides around town, sledding down 15th street hill in winter. Those were the days and so many memories. I picture your mom so many times right there in her kitchen. Dave, Roger, I truely thank you for remembering my parents at there time. Sorry I could not be there for you all. You all are in my memories forever though. Those were the days. Peacefulness be with you all.

My sincere condolences, Randy Harrison
