“ *Deb and Dave,
I just learned of your mom's passing. I have so many fond memories of our visits to Ohio and staying overnight at your house. Your mom always made me feel like part of the family. Helen was a great lady and I am sorry for your loss.*

“ Bev and I have the same memory about Helen and Mom looking alike. Helen and I were the only ones who wore size 4 so she gave some of her shoes. Take care Deb and Dave

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I would really have liked to come to calling hours and shared some of my fond memories of Helen with you, but due to health issues I was unable. Just know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Add to Aunt Helen's memory that when I was a little girl at Gram Mables house I came up to the back of Aunt Helen thinking it was my mom (Martha), talking to her like she was. She turned around and I was sooo... surprised that she looked so much like my mom. Your mom remembered that experience always. Oh, I flew with your dad and mom one day right over your house. Another dear memory I'll never forget.. Beve
