“ I remember the many years I spent with Helen. She was such a blessing to all who knew and loved her. She was part of our family for so many years on the Horizons Alzheimer's Unit. Her smile was very contagious, and her hugs and kisses were always as genuine as she was. She loved to hear the banjo play, and loved for someone to sing with her. Helen had a special gospel song that she and I would sing almost daily. Keep singing Helen, you were an angel to us all. You will be missed.
