“ Homer and his family have been my neighbors since 1984. I have watched the boys grow up, spent hours with Joyce sitting on the porch visiting; I still miss her. Homer, Mouse & I have spent many hours visiting with Homer on our porches here on Foster Avenue. I will miss him this spring and summer as I work in my flower beds and plant my summer flower boxes and baskets. He always enjoyed it when I planted all my summer flowers and would always tell me when I was done that "it was looking good." He always told me I made the best meatloaf and I always made extras so I could send some across the street to Homer. I will miss him sitting on the porch and filling me in on the happenings of the day while I was at work. RIP my dear neighbor; I am going to miss you deeply. Linda Landaker-Stillion & Mouse Stillion
