“ Bertha, Beth, Heidi & Heather: You all have my sincere sympathy in the loss of Howard. I have so many fond memories of growing up with you all - you were my second family and I cannot even tell you how much I loved being at your house, spending the night and being best friends with Heather while we were in grade school! Its too bad we grow up, grow apart and move away. I will always cherish those memories. May God bless you all as you go through this difficult time. Know that I am praying for you. You will all forever remain dear to my heart.
