

Jacobs Mae Jacobs

December 27, 1912 - November 13, 2008

Lela Mae Jacobs, age 95, passed away Thursday, November 13, 2008, at Cambridge Health and Rehabilitation Center. She was born December 27, 1912, to Charles and Matilda Bramhall Gorley, and was a life-long Cambridge resident. She worked in retail sales at Woolworths, Bonham's, and Davis' Department Store. She enjoyed helping her many, many customers over the years of her career.

Lela was a member of Faith United Methodist Church for 85 years. She lived her faith and served her church as a member of the Live Wire Sunday School Class, church historian, and a member of many committees.

She enjoyed traveling the United States with her husband Earl Jacobs, whom she married November 6, 1954. She also enjoyed music and nature, and was a life-long learner. She was devoted to her family.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her loving husband, her sister and best friend, Ruth Robertson, her half-sister, Ada Smith, three half-brothers, and a nephew, Charles Smith.

Lela is survived by her niece, Carol Robertson of Cambridge, two great-nieces, Lindsay Harmon-Matthews Jack of Canal Winchester, Ohio, and Julie Harmon of Willoughby, Ohio, and two nephews, Jack Smith and Atty. Donald Smith both of Cleveland, Ohio.

Calling hours will be Saturday, November 15, at Bundy-Law Funeral Home from 10 am until the time of service at 11 am. Burial will follow in Northwood Cemetery. Memorial donations may be made to the Live Wire Sunday School Class of Faith United Methodist Church or to Hospice of Guernsey County.
