“ I never even knew this was here, Dad. I love and miss you. Looking through all that people said to you in the days after you left us is overwhelming. Even all of the ones who just simple 'lit a candle' in your memory. I am back in NC, but I sort of miss being just around the corner from all of my memories with you. We didn't grow up in one place but you were by my side until I left town as an adult. I miss you and your grandson asks about you constantly. We have the collage we made for the funeral hanging up in our hallway so he can point at it and laugh while yelling, "Grandpa!" His other grandpa died last week, poor little guy only has a step-gramps now! But he'll be okay. Not a day goes by that this is easy, for me. The first few weeks were so unreal that they didn't hurt me. I had to be there for quite literally hundreds of people. Making big decisions with your sister and Parker, making arrangements and setting up services...they occupied me enough to keep me from mourning. Lots of big life changes came shortly after. I temporarily moved back from NC to a small apartment on Beatty Avenue in Cambridge, just around the corner from your house (now your yard) and from Mom's. I had the girls sleeping over nearly nightly and Coop stopping by after school daily. They were watching Kaiden while I worked 2 jobs and I helped Mom as much as I could. I also went to your grave (slightly intoxicated) often to play you guitar. I froze my feet off in the OH snow! After a few months, though, I had to come back to NC - where I truly feel at home - and get back into school. I've finished my EMT cert and in July am starting the fire academy at Crystal Coast Fire Academy as the one and only female in the class of 02-11. I know you'd be totally pumped to hear that...so thanks for the inspiration, Dad. Thanks for the life and the love. We might not ever get to make another memory, but I'm making more of my own now. Micah and I are getting married! We also want to have another baby. All of this is possible because of the way you raised me. Parker's doing great in Cali. He just turned 20 on the day you'd been gone 8 months. Molly is headed to the Bahamas next week, Bri is about to be a Sophomore and Cooper? Almost 12. Here I am turning 22, living on the coast line, loving life. The kids and Mom moved into their new house - perhaps another blessing you *bestowed upon them. That mansion was just too much for Mom to keep up with. We all miss and love you, man. Stick around in some form mk? Thanks,

Your first daughter*

I was Jim's room mate in Athens. I was there when he named his first red van Roberta after Joni Mitchell. Your father was the best. My daughter is also named Kelsey, born in 1987. Your dad would be so proud of all of you.

“ I join with so many others who knew Dr. James Chlovechok in offering my deepest sympathy on his passing. The measure of a life well-lived is not in how much money one has or what possessions they have accumulated, but rather through the lives they touched and the sorrow they leave behind. If the outpouring of sympathy on his loss is any indication, and it most certainly is, you can proudly and confidently say that Dr. James David Chlovechok indeed was a life well-lived.

May you find peace and comfort in knowing that his loss is felt by all who knew and loved him.

“ Father, we pray so much for Dr. Chlovechok's children, please watch over them, until they are re-united in Heaven, In Jesus name amen

In all the times I was a patient of Dr. Chlovechok's he was always in a great mood and that put me in a great mood, knee pain and all. He said many times we can make this work, it wil...I be ok and you will get better...He gave so much to so many...what loss we will see.

*In all our lives of pain we feel
He took the time to help us heal
The man who learned about this life
Was never taken all in strife*

*Of The many people he met on the way
He changed their lives is what they will say
No matter what sickness, disease or sprain
He could look at their face and feel their pain*

*Many will wonder what will they do
They will cherish his memory as I will to His legacy of caring is second to none
He treated each patient as the only one.*

*His zest for living was apparent each day
He was always ready, for whatever came his way
He could make you laugh, when you felt like crying
He would get you right in, he just kept on trying*

*Whatever the need whatever the break
He could fix you right up, whatever it would take.
Many a man has earned his degree
But there will never be another Dr. James D*

The years that he spent to give to us all

*We can always remember when we go to recall
His smile when he seen you, no matter what you would need
He was not thinking of himself at all indeed*

*He has entered into rest and has met the Great Physician
I am sure they are talking about his position
He will no longer linger and no longer roam..
He cared for so many and now he is home*

*Rest In Peace

In Mac's Chemistry class at CHS, whenever we needed somebody to do something, you always volunteered to do it. And as such, we stuck with you with the nickname "Somebody". However, over the years, you truly became "somebody" - somebody very special to a whole lot of folks. Rest easy, my friend.

“ Jim was my cousin. We had lost contact for many years, but just five years ago found one another again. His brother John Russell (sorry John you will always be John Russell to me), Doc Jim, my own brothers Jim and Johnny, and myself were just getting to know one another again, enjoying memories of past family gatherings. We were also making attempts to have a "cousin reunion" but as with everything, life kept getting in the way. We thought we had time. Little did we know. Jim, I am so sorry we didn't make that happen for you because I know how much you wanted to reconnect with the Chlovechok cousins after so many years apart. The shock of losing you so suddenly brings reality back to all of us. You cannot put off things that are important. I promise to do what I can to make a reunion happen for John Russell and I know that you will be with us all in spirit. But we will miss your presence, cousin, and that wonderful big smile and positive attitude. Thank you for all you did for Dick.

“ I met Doc years ago when he worked in the ER and I worked ER registration. He was a wonderful, funny, caring man. After he opened his sports medicine clinic, he was one of the only doctors in our area who took enough interest in me and my neuromuscular disease to research it and listen to me. Any time one of my kids or I had a sprain or injury, he'd see us right away. I admired him very much and recommended him to many.
My heart aches for not only his family, friends and staff, but all of his patients too. Prayers for all.

“ First of all, our deepest sympathies to his family. The days ahead will be long and hard and you will cry alot.....let it happen. I wanted you to know that both my husband and I went to him for physical problems. I had a horrible disk prob and my husband had a joint issue. Dr. Jim took time, listened to our concerns and did whatever he knew would help.....it did help and we both no longer deal with those issues. He was true to the oath he took as a DR. We did not know him on a personal level but if he was that caring as a Dr. then he would have to have been an awesome friend and father. We will keep you all in our prayers.
