“ Jenny,
Seems like only a short time ago we were stopping by your house to see you, only to find you out somewhere else. So we'd spend an hour talking with your mom! What a beautiful soul! We had great times with your family.

“ Dear Jenny and Doug, Our paths do not cross as often as we would like, but we have some rich memories with both of you to think and smile about. I am sure your moms are looking down upon your family with warmth and comfort knowing they lived life well. We hope to see you on the bike path for hugs after the virus anti-hug ban is lifted! May God's grace and peace be with you and your family, and his gift of memories comfort you in the days to come.

“ She was a special person to my mother, Evelyn Scott. In her later years my mother did not like to drive and on Friday nights Jane would often call to pick her up and take her to dinner. It made my mother's day. Jane would also pick up Pat Lynskey's mother for dinner. Pat and I tried to take Jane to dinner once a year in appreciation for the love and kindness that she showed to our mothers. She was special.
