

Janet F. White

November 13, 1938 - March 8, 2003

Janet F. White, Beloved Wife, Mother, and Nan, age 64 of Cambridge, died Saturday, March 8, 2003, at Ohio State University Hospital, in Columbus after a lengthy illness. She was a daughter of the late Glen Banfield and D. Christine West Banfield. She was a homemaker and an active member of the East Union Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. White was affiliated with the following: she served on the election board for over 20 years, was a part of the Church Choir, C.C.L. of Norwich member of UTC, Wing 13 Aux. Past Member at Southeastern Ohio Regional Medical Center, was a founding member of the Norwich School Homecoming Reunion. She also loved spending time with her Grandchildren.

Mrs. White was married on February 19, 1957 to Earl L. White, who lives in Cambridge.

Also surviving are: 5 daughters; Debra L. Butler of Cambridge, Denise R. Ed Stover of Cambridge, D. Christine Bob of Cambridge, Diane L. Michael St. Clair of New Concord, Dawn P. George Shehadeh of Cambridge, 12 grandchildren; Britney, Brooke, Nathaniel, Jenny, Niki, Derek, Alyssa, Aarika, Cayla, Sydney, Mackenzie and Baileigh, 2 great grandchildren; Kelli and Brayden 2 sisters; Joan William Neff of Norwich and Jeannie William McCall of Cambridge, 1 aunt Clara West Hughes in New Concord and also by several nieces, nephews and cousins.

A Memorial Service will be on Monday, March 10, 2003 at East Union Presbyterian Church at 10:00am with Dr. Ronald Fleming officiating.

Memorial Contributions may be made to The East Union Presbyterian Church Building Fund.