“ Carol & Family, while I am saddened by her passing, my heart soars to imagine Janet reunited with her Mom & sister. Janet was a wonderful example of Christian love and the world was a better place with her here. Now she is running with angels and hearing the words "well done, my good and faithful servant."##imported-begin##Penny Dillehay of Hospice##imported-end##

“ I volunteered as an Ombudsman at Amberwood Manor. Whenever I visited Janet I always greeted her with "Hi Ornerly, how are you doing?" She would answer, "Being ornerly" with a smile on her face. She never complained and always looked so nice in her bright, cheerful gowns. I feel blessed that I had the opportunity to meet Janet and to her family I offer my deepest sympathy. She will be missed.##imported-begin##Lee Kreinbihl##imported-end##
