“ Nana: Im sorry I could not attend your funeral! I remeber laying on your bed as you made up rap songs about Michael and I. I always enjoyed hearing stories about you taking care of Michael when he was young and how youfractured your back getting Michael out of the bed. I always enjoyed your company. You always made me laugh! Micahel was always so jealous of how close we were! I always will remember you telling my mom she looked like a teenager! R.I.P and i will see you one day! Love always Lindsey

“ Nana, it has been just over a month since you were taken from us. I sometimes find myself in moments like now where I can't stop thinking about you and your wisdom and how I wish you were still here. I love you and miss you dearly. I have no doubt that Roman and you are resting in paradise. I love you so much.

“ So sorry we were unable to attend the services for your mom. My mom is living with me now. We sold her house about a year ago. It was great growing up on Creston Road. I always knew I was safe and could count on your family or the Johnsons, or Bakers, or Selders, or DeVores if I needed something. I especially remember Judy and Brenda, they were the "older girls" and I could look to them to see what was in style or how to wear my hair(although because of my long braids until fourth grade I couldn't get too stylish) I remember all you kids gathering at your moms and how much fun you all had. One funny story, one time you installed a glazed window in your bathroom window and it had to be put in right or it didn't work, someone put it in backwards and we could see everyone in the bathroom. Needless to say we called over to your house and told you that the window was in wrong. It was interesting for awhile. Please accept our sympathy and prayers.
