“ JoEllen, I don't know what you were thinking messing up all the plans we had made... Who is going to terrorize the nursing home staff with me when I'm in my 80's. Who's going to yell out the window of my car as we go to lunch because YOU thought someone had cut me off. Who's going to show me videos of Mason and Dillion's latest antics or let me yell over your phone as you talk to your Mammassita. You better be waiting when I get there.

“ So sorry for your loss, Judy. Losing a child has to be one of life's most painful experiences.

You are in my thoughts and prayers.

I've been trying to reach you. The letter sent to you in Mt. Vernon was returned 'undeliverable' - I must have written it incorrectly when we talked by telephone.

When you feel up to it, call or e-mail me. 740.366.6654 or cherimisel@mac.com

JoEllen's warm smile and infectious laugh brightened a room. She made the world around her a brighter place. She touched so many lives and I am thankful that mine was one of them. It was truly a pleasure working with her. I still find it hard to believe - I can only think that God had needed a bright angel by his side. My thoughts and prayers are with her family and all those whose lives are forever touched by this loss.

“ Dearest JoEllen, I want to stop the clock...rewind the days...ask God to please reconsider. To your family, there are no words in the written language to convey the depth of my sadness or adequately provide you comfort. The world has come to a jolting halt. I can only offer my prayers To God and ask that He embrace you. To JoEllen's JFS family...these are dark days. I find myself stopping in my tracks to recount something JoEllen said...the sound of her laugh...her birthday parties...and our talks. I would often see JoEllen and Fawn heading out across the parking lot and think, "There goes peas and carrots." I would witness her defending her team and think, "If everyone had a champion like JoEllen..." When JoEllen would speak, she put it all out there. She left nothing on the table...she was strong and soft, serious and seriously funny. Our hearts are broken and the pain from the jagged edges is real, and it's just too much to bear.

“ JoEllen, you were my one-time manager, my co-worker, my fellow cat-lover. Above all, you were my friend. We'd IM each other work questions frantically, and then apologize if our tone came off rough. We'd share laughs about how anyone else would interpret our exchanges. You knew how to laugh, have fun, and by laughing, make work fun. I knew how much you missed playing volleyball, and I hoped you'd be able to return to it. I expect you are up there in heaven talking up a pickup game, and scoping out a team. Love to you, and prayers for your family to find strength through these days until they see you again.
