“ My sincerest sympathies to the family. John and I went to school together at Old Washington, John and my brother, David Lam, were good friends. John was my favorite of all my brother's friends. He was a very kind person and I regarded him very highly. My prayers are with you during this difficult time.

“ Uncle John, I shall always remember you helping our family when we were young. Always helping our Mom with things that she could not do. I remember you laughing and your quiet sense of humor. You endured a very hard time the last few years. Now you get to rest. Until we see you again.. Love Pam

“You always have that one resident that you will never forget . John was one of them . He often did things to catch us by surprise like get out of his chair and run through the ratunda and around the dining room with us close behind them he would hurry up and sit down then laugh. Prayers at this very hard time

“John is the first resident I remember meeting. He would race down the hall to be the 1st in the dining room and the 1st back. What was the rush I never knew. Then the laptop. Always on the laptop. And the breakfast he could order. 6 small cups with straws. Pancakes oats ice cream eggs bacon and toast. He had to order 1st. He was there 1st. And don't forget to take care of his friends at the table. Such a character. He was always telling me something to make me laugh. He wanted a bicycle. He stuck to that one for a while. He always smiled no matter what he was going thru. Nothing made him happier than when I asked about his family. He would laugh while he talked. Half the time I would miss what he was saying because he would laugh. I would just laugh. Jan I have never seen a more dedicated wife than you. John loved you so much. I will miss seeing you everyday..
