“ Tom, Terry, and Glenn,
Uncle John always held a special place in my memories, especially when I was a child. I looked up to him not only as an uncle, but almost as an older brother. He always had time for me to help with a project at our aunt and uncle's farm or to go fishing. I especially remember one time when I was about nine or ten and Dad had promised to take me fishing and had some work to do so we couldn't go. Uncle John just appeared at our aunt Martha's farm and we went fishing. That was Uncle John--always there when I needed a friend.

John was one of those special people of the "greatest generation." He kept our country free, worked hard, had a loving wife and family and always asked what he could do for others.

We know you will have many memories to share and those will grow more precious every day. Our prayers and thought will be with you.
