“ I'll always remember talking you into playing with us at the park and having you as our "All-time pitcher" for kickball and wiffle ball games, and all of those times cat fishing at Salt Fork. After so many years away from Cambridge it was good to reconnect with you and Albert and be able share some of our memories. I will take comfort in knowing that you are resting in Heaven with a restored body and have been reunited with your loved ones. We will see you again one day.
