“ Peggy and family, I am SO very sorry about Joe. What a great guy and sweet man! You will be missed Joe! You always had that wonderful smile on your face whenever I would see you-which wasn't all the time, but, it was enough to know what a great person you were! You always seemed to have that spring in your step-and ready to go have some fun. You were always a very pleasant person, and always had a kind word to say!! I know Chris thought a lot of you! And you sure made Peggy happy!! I am sure she will be lost without you! A lot of people will be!

*“ You brought so much joy to our family so many laughs we had, so many wonderful adventures, if not for you I would have never went on a white water raft ride down the Youghiogheny River class 5 ..... You found joy in everything and taught us all so much! The poker games we all had brought Long enjoyment and lots of laughs to long to winters! Your enthusiasm when you told stories brought joy to us all... Your intelligence was amazing! And I now know how long to boil an egg because Peg said you liked your eggs boiled 6 minutes.... Inside joke. You will be missed greatly
Love you Jim, Jan, & Lexy*
