“ Uncle Joe~ Thank you for all the wonderful times we had together as a family. You have always done your very best to be there for us all. I also want you to know that i respect all that you did to serve our country ...you paid a priceless debt that we as a country or a family can ever repay. Whenever you talked about those times ..I could see how proud you were..Misty, Chris , Josh and Joe..I am very proud that you all stood by your dad's side when he needed you most..cause I know he stayed strong for you kids and grand babies. Be strong and he will always be with you! Trust me that when you need an angel his strong soul will guide you in the right direction. Simply believe..Love always!
