“ Things I know about Josh:

He loved to joke around

He loved people

He had a contagious smile and a big heart

He was quick to repent and was not ashamed to do it, even in front of people!

He admitted when he was wrong

He loved gum and going out to eat

He always noticed you!

He loved the Lord

He loved his dad

You could sure learn a lot from Josh. Compared to most of us, he really was a better person. Just not as refined or a better word would be "fake"

I love him and will miss him here on earth. But look forward to meeting him on that shore. I know he will be there and will not let you miss him!

Love you Josh. Really love you brother!

“ I remember Josh running and playing among all of us kids a long time ago when our families would get together--what a fun loving guy he always was! Really wish you could have met my husband and daughter they would have loved you just as much as my family and I have since we met you back in the early 90's. What a blessing to know that Josh is with our Lord and Savior and this really isn't a good-bye, just a see ya later! Our love and prayers are with your family!

“ I remember Josh at all of the Muskingum Christian Academy Basketball Games. He never cease to amaze me. He always called me Mrs. Wolff and always told me how pretty I was. I used to buy him chips and candy. He was very appreciative of them. He was our biggest fan at heart. Always had kind things to say about everybody. He even picked my daughter out and said how much we looked alike. Josh taught us so much about compassion and the importance of what family is, without saying a word. He will be truly missed. But he is walking the streets of gold with Jesus with a whol mind and body. We love you Josh!

“ New Year's Eve all-nighters at Bible Baptist.
If only we could all still be children again. Those were such happy times.
