

Judith Ann Milam

June 13, 1946 - September 13, 2017

Judith Ann (Smith) Milam, age 71 of St. Clairsville, passed away on Wednesday, September 13, 2017 at Astoria of Cambridge. She was born on June 13, 1946 in Beckley, West Virginia, a daughter of the late Walter Walfred Smith and Myrtle Mae (Barbour) Smith.

Judith was a graduate of Woodrow Wilson High School class of 1965. She attended Beckley College and was a Certified Nursing Assistant for 31 years. She had worked many years at Park Health Nursing Home and Belmont Manor.

Judith enjoyed crocheting and reading. She also enjoyed listening to music and loved animals. She was a long time Jehovah's Witness.

Surviving are: her daughter Katrina Milam of Phoenix, AZ, her son John Karl (Molly) Milam of Cambridge; three grandchildren, Gracie Milam, Garrett Milam and Richard Patterson; her brother John H. Smith of St. Clairsville; and special friends: Faith Schmidt, John R. Milam, Barb Long, Birdie West.

Judith is preceded in death by: her parents, and two sisters, Sylvia Howard and Ethel Donnell.

The family will have a private memorial service at a later date. Judith's online tribute wall may be viewed and signed at www.bundy-lawfuneralhome.com.

Tribute Wall

“ I am very sorry for your loss. May God bless you and comfort you in this time of sorrow and loss. ”

Victor Lagneaux - September 16, 2017 at 10:35 PM