

Judy L. Duty

October 27, 1948 - February 15, 2025

Judy (Duty) Meglich spent her remaining years on the land she loved in Salt Fork, Ohio, alongside her devoted husband, Marty Meglich, who survives her. It was there, with him by her side, that she peacefully spent her final days. Judy was preceded in death by her beloved son, Robert Uplinger, and is survived by her husband, Marty; her daughters, Christina Heppe and Monette Cole; as well as her stepchildren, William (Lisa) Meglich, Jon (Shari) Meglich, and Theresa Meglich. She was a cherished grandmother to Veronica, Robert, Destiny, Elizabeth, Michael, Miranda, Stephen, Kati, Brandon, Baron, Zack, Peyton, and Dale, and a proud great-grandmother to 11 great-grandchildren—each of whom she “loved more.”

Judy had a heart for helping others and was a pillar of strength for those around her. From working in bars to owning them, she built a life filled with hard work and ambition. She stood beside her husband, even working alongside him on the railroad, always dedicated to their shared dreams. Judy was funny, smart, and fiercely strong—a woman who left an impact on everyone she met.

She will be deeply missed by her family and friends, but her legacy will live on in the love and laughter she shared. Along with her loved ones, she also leaves behind her favorite three travel companions—her beloved dogs, Maggie, Cookie, and Gizmo.

Per Granny’s request, close family will have a private event in the summer, and no services will be held. In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to a charity of one's choice. Judy's online guest book may be viewed and signed at www.bundy-lawfuneralhome.com.

Cemetery Details

At a later date

Tribute Wall

NB

“ Judy has been my neighbor for as long as I’ve been alive. She helped to fill my childhood with love and laughter as well as a sense of belonging in my hometown. She was and is still loved by our little “neighborhood” and I’ll never forget the love she shared with everyone she came into contact with. I hope her family knows how well loved she was and how she touched the hearts of everyone around her. God bless.

Natasha Biggins - February 18, 2025 at 06:57 PM

MT

“ Mrs. Judy, lovingly known as “Granny,” will be deeply missed. My prayers and heartfelt condolences go out to her husband, Marty and the rest of her beautiful family. May you find comfort in the love and memories you shared and may her warmth and kindness continue to live on through each of you. ❤️🕊️

Mark T - February 17, 2025 at 10:02 PM

AH

“ Oh how much you taught me through the years. You always was my #2 mother. I will miss those conversations when I would call out of nowhere with lots of questions. I love you Aunt. Give everyone a big hug for me as you go visit so many very dear people. What a FABULOUS lady you always was!! 🥹

Angelique Hensley - February 17, 2025 at 05:31 PM

JM

“ A great lady and will be missed everyday and that we all love you thank you for everything you did for us ”

Jonathan meglich - February 17, 2025 at 03:58 PM

SU

“ Sue lit a candle in memory of Judy L. Duty ”

Sue - February 17, 2025 at 01:20 PM

SH

“ So very sad you had to leave but so very happy our paths crossed Rest Well lovely lady ”

Shari - February 17, 2025 at 12:48 PM

CS

“ Cindy Schneider lit a candle in memory of Judy L. Duty ”

cindy Schneider - February 17, 2025 at 12:43 PM