“ I dearly loved my sister June. We grew up in the great depression together and were very poor yet very happy. I lived wiyh her and Lawerence in New Jersey and worked as a painter. She packed my lunch and always put some of her home baked cookies in it and june was a great cookie maker. To all her children and family I share your hurt.

Deepest sympathy to all my Brothers and Sisters. Love
Brother Brodie and Roberta Riley 12/26/06
