“ I moved away from Ohio in 1988 so I have not seen Aunt Kathy in some time. I remember going to visit Aunt Kathy and Uncle Don when they lived in Newark. I loved sitting in their living room and hear Aunt Kathy's laugh. Such a contagious laugh. I know Uncle Don was waiting to greet her when she arrived in heaven.....walking to a favorite fishing hole.

“ I always liked visiting her home, it was always so peaceful out there at her & Don's property. She did make some really pretty quilts & her dish scrubbies. I'm sure Aunt Kathy will find Uncle Don fishing at a pond, enjoying eternity together. ❤️
Aunt Kathy was an incredible soul.

“ After Uncle Don passed, we would pick up Aunt Kathy at Salt Fork area and bring her to the Cramer Family Reunion in Grandville area. She would always want to give a little trinket of thanks for taking her. I have some sweet dollies she has made. And she would always show me on the spare bed the new quilt project she was working on. Miss her sweetness and kind smile ❤️ together with Uncle Don.

“ Kathy was such a good friend - first to my mom and then to me. She loved to quilt. She also enjoyed Kentucky Fried Chicken when she took the "Senior van" to town.
