“ When I think of Kathy, I see her smiling face, her generosity, her love for all, and especially her love for our Lord. She never complained about anything! She was an inspiring woman. I look forward to the day when I meet her again and am able to tell her what a difference she made in my life and in my own walk with the Lord. I'm so grateful for Kathy's friendship and love. I will keep Craig, Christopher, and the rest of Kathy's family in my prayers as they learn to go on without her.

“ My dear friend has gone home before me. I will sit with her again at the great heavenly feast our good Lord has promised and prepared us. To know she is surrounded by immeasurable joy and peace, is comfort through this time of heavy sorrow. We shared so many laughs and a few tears. I do so miss my friend and sister in Christ. We are very sorry to hear of your loss and sincerely continue to pray that our God will give you strength and courage for these hard days. It is so very good to know WHERE Kathy is and that her struggle is over. Also to know that there will be a day when you will see her again. Truly the cross has taken the sting of death away! Our hearts and thoughts are with you! Our memories aren't too many as we didn't see a whole lot of each other, but we knew what a valiant fighter Kathy was and we deeply respect your faithfulness and love during the past years. “ Craig and Christopher, I, like everyone else can only say I am sorry for your loss. But there is something special, though hard, about being able to walk with a loved one to the very edge of their resurrection, you get an inner glimpse of what lies beyond for them and what will be for us. Stay close to each other, she isn't finished with touching others with her life, it simply will be from a different place.##imported-begin##Barb Schneider & Amy Schneider Lepi##imported-end##
