“ Here it is, a week after your service, and I find myself looking at the memorial card from your services and looking at your sweet picture and reading those sweet words. I have known you for 4 short years, but, you made a very big impact on me. There are so many heavy hearts with you gone, but we know you are still here and will always be here. I miss your funny looks and you winking when you were messing around and trying to get Betty all fired up, among MANY other things about you. There is an empty space in all the lives you have touched and you are missed so so so much. So thankful you are not suffering anymore but miss you terribly. Thinking of you all the time,

“ Hi Grandpa, I miss you. You know it will never be the same without you here. I'll miss you at Christmas time when you'd always try and not destroy your wrapping paper so it'd take you two hours to open four presents. I'll miss you causing trouble and being funny. I'll miss your hugs and you telling me I smelled good all the time. I love you Grandpa and I do wish you were still here but I'm glad you're not suffering anymore because that's the last thing any of us want. We're going to take very good care of Gram and I'll see you tomorrow. Gram keeps telling us it's never going to be normal again and she's right. You were very special to all of us. We love you so much. You're with fancy and Robbie now and I'm sure they've missed you. We will meet again one day Grandpa. I love you and I miss you dearly. You're my best friend Grandpa and this is going to be so hard not seeing you everyday, but we'll get through it the best that we can. You're our guardian angel now Grandpa. The memories we have will last a life time. I love you Grandpa. Rest in peace bud. <3
