Mom was saying Kevin would come up to the house each day and say a few words to her and sometimes sit at her kitchen table and chat. He was a good boy who became a wonderful man., Dad thought so much of Kevin. “ Kevin wrote me my first ticket at age 17. I had expected to get out of it once I told him my father was also a police officer. Instead, he told me "you should know better then". Roughly a year later I became a dispatcher for the PD. Kevin joked with me about writing me a ticket and how I tried everything to get out of it. In return I sent him on all the annoying calls and accidents that I possibly could. Cambridge U-6 you were an awesome guy with a contagious smile.
