

L. Jeanette Cox

September 15, 1929 - November 30, 2020

L. Jeanette Cox, age 91 of Antrim passed away at her home on Monday, November 30, 2020 surrounded by her family. She had lived on the Cox family farm for over 50 years. She was born on September 15, 1929 in Barnesville, a daughter of the late John and Lucielle (McClelland) Duffy.

Jeanette was a graduate of Barnesville High School. She worked and retired from Champion Spark Plug after over 33 years of service. She had also worked for City Income Tax after retiring. She was a well known award winning quilter, having attended many shows and guilds. She enjoyed visiting with her friends, shopping trips, gardening and caring for her rose garden. She traveled the country with her husband and especially loved Alaska. Winter was her favorite season, she loved seeing the beauty of the snowy countryside. She loved horses and riding, and passed that along to her family. Jeanette was married on August 13, 1948 to Paul A. Cox, whom she joins in Heaven with along with a son Brian W. Cox and her brother Harold "Bud" Duffy.

Surviving are: a daughter Teresa Brooks of Cambridge; a son Gary (Cecily) Cox of Antrim; grandchildren Casey P. (Denise) Brooks, Amanda R. Green, Molly Cox and Nicholas Brooks; great grandchildren, Brian, Kamrin, Mason and Wrenlee; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Private graveside services were held for the family. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the charity of one's choice. Jeanette's online guest book may be viewed and signed at www.bundy-lawfuneralhome.com.
