

Larry I. Graham

October 8, 1945 - November 9, 2005

Larry I. Graham, 60, of Old Washington died Wednesday, November 9, 2005 at his home.

He was born October 8, 1945, in Guernsey County, son of the late Harry I. Graham and Doris Diss Fenwick of Derwent.

Mr. Graham worked in commercial construction, was an owner/operator truck driver, a maintenance supervisor and a veteran of the U.S. Navy.

Larry was married on March 3, 1967 to Helen M. Swank Graham.

He was a member of the Eagles 386, O.O.I.D.A., past member of the carpenters union, avid horse and dog lover, and was known for his great sense of humor.

He is survived by his wife; Helen M. Swank Graham of the home, his mother; Doris Diss Fenwick of Derwent, 1 daughter; Tamara Graham of Cambridge, 1 son; Harry Rhonda Graham of Cambridge, 2 step-daughters; Donna Hinderliter of Dallas, Texas, Cathy Fillman of Dallas, Texas, 1 step-son; Randy Fillman of Winter Springs, Florida, 1 brother; Tim Sharon Graham of Derwent, Ohio, 9 grandchildren; Brandon, Ashley, Amber, Zachary, Chase, Cassandra, Cameron, Dakota, and Larry, a special shadow; Dakota, a special friend; Denzil Burke and family of Sugarcreek, Ohio. He is also survived by several nieces and nephews.

Mr. Graham is preceded in death by his father; Harry I. Graham.

Calling hours will be Friday, November 11, 2005 from 6-9pm at Bundy-Law Funeral Home, Cambridge, Ohio. A private family service will be held at a later date.