“ Larry made my childhood a special time. He always treated me like a daughter. Sitting at the supper table as he told us stories of times long ago in the Holler. The nights he spent picking his banjo in his chair. The time he built us a trail course so we could practice with our ponies.. I never wanted to go home. My only comfort is that he has been reunited with Janet. His kindness will never be forgotten.

I remember when I was young Larry, Bob Caples and Ed Davis sitting around the pot belly stove at Caples gas station. My sympathies to the family. I wonder if they are sitting together again.
