“ I remember the look she could give you -- just a little, sidelong look while listening to you -- a look that could say more with that one glance, than a politician can say in a full speech. I remember how proud she was to speak of Marc's achievements, of Abbie's achievements ... I could see the smile in her words when she wrote of Marc's awards and Abbie's learner's permit.

“ Rest now sister, in the loving arms of our lord, you are free at last, in paradise. I will never forget you, and hanging out at your house when we were kids, but I wish we could have completed our plans to see each other again....but GOD had other plans for you, his Will be done.... so be it, I'll see you again in heaven..... Thoughts and prayers to the family and friends.... I'm so sorry for your loss....
