“ My condolences to the family, especially Erin. I was privileged to visit a couple of times with L.T. on late night shopping trips at Wal-Mart. We got to relive some "theater" moments. I always found him genial and caring of his family. I'm so sorry for his loss; we are all poorer for the experience. I hope he has found peace, and that "the wind will always be at his back" ”

“ You were a shining light in in the lives of many and led by example for those who attempted to follow on the same path through life. You were loved by many; that, i'm certain of. Many prayers and sympathy goes out to the loved ones left behind. May God keep you all...
