“ Maxine, Wilma, Mary Lou and Scott---
Maxine, I'm so grateful that you took the time to call me when Linda passed. I had not seen Linda for many years-- even after I returned to Cambridge to care for my Mom and Dad.

While growing up it was always obvious how you and your siblings and parents took such good care to protect and nurture your sister. Your mom Edna provided love and attention for so many years and my parents often mentioned your family and their life long neighbors when I lived in Atlanta. I'm sorry for your loss but I know and you know the best was always provided for her. I don't think loss ever gets easier-- it hasn't for me-- but you adapt and go on. I would like to thank you for the kindnesses you have shown to me and my family-- you put quality into the word "neighbor". Sincerely, Gary Patterson 3-9-2015
