“ Linda and I suffered and laughed our way through PE classes, shared our humor, and enjoyed some good times. Although my last visit with her was at a class reunion 1980?, I will always remember her with a smile on her face. Please know that many of her former classmates share in your loss.##imported-begin##Kathy Durben Welsch##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Miss DuBois was my 6th grade teacher in 1976. I have remembered her through the years as being a wonderful teacher and person. I was tremendously saddened to hear of her passing. I will keep you all in my prayers now, and each time I think of her. God bless you all and I know she is happy now with God. “ To the family of Linda Dubois:

You do not know me however, I stumbled upon your loved ones obituary and was moved to offer my condolences. I also recently experienced loosing a loved one in death and understand the pain and loss you experience at such a time I found comfort in two scriptures in particular John five twenty eight and Revelation twenty one three through five when ever you feel up to it please read those verses. If possible I would like to send you a pamphlet that I read that brought me lot's of comfort. It taught me how to cope with my loss. I would like to send it to you as a gift from one neighbor to another.

Warmly Mrs. Craft

You can email me if you are ok with me sending you my expression of comfort.##imported-begin##D. Craft##imported-end##
