“ I was so sorry to hear of Madeleine's passing having known her through my father Bob Barclay he worked for her and John at the Travelodge many years ago. My fondest memory of her was every time I seen her she would give me 50 cents to go and get an ice cream. She was a dear sweet lady and will be missed. God called home a very special angle.

“ John,

Annette and I are deeply saddened to learn of Madeleine's passing. Anyone who ever came in contact with Madelein quickly learned of her freindly caring nature, her broad smile and good humor, as did we upon moving to Cambridge and sharing time with both at the Travelodge. Our prayers go out to you John, your daughters and extended family.
