“ Lots of great memories growing up with my cousins and Aunt Mae and Uncle Paul. I remember the old farmhouse with the spooky upstairs, sitting hanging our legs over the barn loft looking down at the creek in summer, Aunt Mae's good cooking and her warm and snuggly hugs and how she smelled like sweet flowers. I always admired her gardening skills and her angel and doll collection too. She was a beautiful, caring soul and her loss will be felt greatly. You got your angel wings Aunt Mae. May Jesus comfort all friends and family that are grieving. Prayers for peace and comfort and lots of love to all.
