“ I am posting this for my mother, Sally Miller — My sister, Margaret Ann Price, will be missed by all who knew her. She was a true Christian - loving, kind and caring. She always followed the way of The Lord. Her religion was very important to her and she taught religious classes and shared this importance with others. Peggy was also a very talented artist as was her daughter, Carol. Family was very important to Peggy and she was a wonderful mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister and friend - an example to us all! We want to thank her granddaughter, Danielle, and her family for the loving care they have given my sister these past several years. Peggy loved them dearly. We have heavy hearts as we mourn her passing but we know she was an angel on earth so she is now an angel in heaven.

“ Yes and Amen to all the responses so far concerning Peggy. She did indeed have many sorrows here, but shared often of the One Who guided and helped her through each and every one of them, Jesus. He was her Shepherd giving grace for each sorrow she encountered. She loved Him dearly.
I praise God for this lady, whom I had the great pleasure to work for many, many years ago. I will miss her dearly, all the calls, all the notes all that she was to me and as is evident to all who had the privilege to know her.
I praise God I will see her again, this isn't the end of the story.

“ Peggy was such a sweet lady of God. Although I'll miss seeing her again here on earth, I'm so happy for her being reunited with her husband and children in heaven. She endured so much heartache here, but always let others know it was God who got her through. She was also a great prayer warrior for others. May God give those left behind peace and comfort.

“I was so blessed to know Ms.Peggy for the last few years. I don't think she ever realized how much of a blessing she was to me. She always had a smile on her face at church and always reminded me that God-loved me. I will forever miss her infectious smile, caring heart, and the way she truly loved our God, but will cherish these memories of her forever. Peggy strived to praise God and she is now receiving the ultimate benefit. Peggy will be so deeply missed, by so many people. Prayers to her family for comfort and strength during this time.
