“ My dear sweet mom, wow, don't know where to start...you're my rock, my mentor, my fun-loving run-around buddy, and my pretty much everything. Where will I be without you? With the strength, love, and positive spirit you've shown me, I will give all I have to make you proud and carry on. Such simple things made you happy and that has shown us all how to appreciate those little overlooked blessings in our lives...clean sheets (your favorite!), yummy hash browns, a new tablecloth, your daily soap opera, a new plant, Hellman's mayonnaise, a good coupon for our hair color, scallops in your Chinese food, a good burger fried in the skillet, your pride in Hannah and Nicholas!, and a hug from anyone you loved! - they all made you smile. If the world could be as happy as you about such little things, it would be a much better place. I am forever grateful for all that you did and all that you have been in my life. Looking forward to that big meatloaf cookoff in the sky mom...until then! Your Loving Daughter, Amy

Marianne was a loving, kind lady who left this world much too quickly. I will remember her for her sense of humor and her beautiful smile...her warm greeting each time we would meet...her positive attitude and strength even in the worst of times. Eric, Amy, Mike...my heart breaks for you. I send you my deepest sympathy and much love.

Amy, I just learned of your Mom's passing. It came as a big shock - somehow you think good people will live forever. We met at Spectra Physics and were friends from day one. I can still picture her big smile. We shared many lunches together, long talks, and a few concerts too. I am so sorry for your loss. I remember the day she found out she had a granddaughter. She said, "hey, I'm Hannah's Nanna." She was thrilled. And when Nicholas came along...ditto. I always urged her to move to Texas and was happy when she told me she was headed to Hurst. She was a good friend and wonderful gal. I'll see her again some day.
