“ Marie has always been a special memory for me of my years in Cambridge. She had such sweet demeanor and seemed to move through life with quiet grace. She always made me feel welcomed and comfortable both as a child and as a visitor in later life. Even more important perhaps, is that she always seemed to feel at home within herself and with life. Thanks for the memories Marie ... movie night in the grocery store, the lilac bush in the yard and always, your collections of all things beautiful.###imported-begin###Janet Driggs Heise###imported-end##
