“ Dear sweet Aunt Marjorie and family - Due to illness I have been long out of touch but you were not out of my thoughts these many years. I have fond memories of your caring words and thoughts in the past to me and my parents- Charles and Mary Lou. May you have peace and a joyful reunion with the loved ones who went before you and wait for others who will follow. I will miss you more as I have for several years now. Fond hugs from me and sadness for your family left behind. Rest now- I always joked with you about your / our " always in a rush!" moments. I'll miss that shy smile-- but I'll remember us saying--" oh someday we'll rest!" Much love and respect. nephew Gary.
